Subject:—

Alleged failure on the part of the Peshkar of the Melkote Temple to obseve the long standing mamool of sending certain honors from the Melkote Temple to the Sri Parakalaswamy on the commencement of the Chaturmasya Sankalpa.

---

33) On 30th June 1920, Mr. Rangachar, Agent of the Matt, wired to the Dewan as follows:-

"To-morrow His Holiness Sri Parakalaswamy to celebrate Chaturmasya Sankalpa instead sending mamool honors Melkote Temple Peshkar has written insulting Yadi offering money His Holiness feels grossl insulted."

34) 2. The wire was at once communicated to the Deputy Commissione by telegram and he was requested to report what the exact position was and also to see that no occasion was given for avoidable grievance. The Agent of the Matt also complained to the Deputy Commissioner on the subject.

35) 3. In reply to the reference made from the Muzrai Secretariat, the Deputy Commissioner has sent an ad interim report which is submitted herewith for the gracious perusal of His Highness the Maharaja.

36) 4. The Deputy Commissioner's further report in the matter is awaited.

He promised to give his immediate attention & keep us posted with result of action taken in a couple of days. This report may be awaited.

I have not the least objection to the Deputy Secy holding the enquiry himself & might stay here for the Darbar session & paying a visit to Melkote also if need be. At my instance the Deputy Secy came here some days ago. Met the Swamiji of the Parakala Mutt, heard what he had to say, & also discussed the matter with the D.C. & reported the result to me at Bangalore. The only regrettable item of the affair has been the delay in delivering the Pashkar & making other arrangements for work.

Complaints of the arch[illegible] Sri Parkala Mutt, a[illegible], Melkote Temple.

7. [illegible] ON ACCOUNT OF [illegible] SANKALPA

The agent claimed that under [illegible] dated 20th August 1830 granted by His Late Highness Krishnaraja Wadavar Bahadur, Sri Parakalaswami is entitled to get the following honours from the Narayanaswamy Temple at Melkote on the occasion of his performing the Chaturmasya Sankalpa:-

A Pair of Dhotras,
Namada ordars,
1 Parivatta,
Plantain fruits,
Cocoanuts,
Betel nuts,
Betel leaves,
Kavi stones,

and that these honours have been shown to the Swami since the date of the Sunnad, but that the Peshkar sent Rs. 14-8-0 to him on 29-6-1920 and asked him to buy the articles and present them to the Swami on the occasion of the Chaturmasya Sankalpa of 1920 and thereby has grossly insulted the Swami. + When I commenced the enquiry on 24th October 1930, a number Tenkalai residents of Melkote appeared before me and raised the contentions that the Sunnad relied upon by the Mutt is a fabricated document and that even if it is genuine, it does not state that the honours should be continued to the Swamis of the Parakala Mutt in hereditary succession and that the prese Swami who succeeded to the apostolic in question only in November 1914, is not entitled to the honours described in the Sunnad dated 30th August 1850. I hold that Therefore that they had no locus standi an enquiry about a complaint against the Peshkar and I refuse to hear the [illegible] The Peshkar has not advanced these matters and I do not think it necessary for the purposes of the present enquiry to go into them, especially as the records produced before me go to show that the honours in question have been shown to the Jamadars at least since 1852 and the Peshkar sent R. 14-8-6 on the assumption that the Patti was entitled to these honours. I therefore take it for granted for the purposes of the present enquiry that the Sunnad is genuine and that the honours have been conferred on the Swamis in hereditary succession.

1. The Sunnad clearly allows the Swami the honours referred to above and there can be no doubt that the Peshkar ought to have sent to him the articles specified in kind, there being nothing in it authorizing the transmission of the articles or their value. Prima facie therefore it was a mistake on the part of the Peshkar to have sent in lieu of the articles R. 14-8-6 which is the value thereof.

(On what authority a sum of R. 14-8-6 is being spent every year on this account, I have not been able to find out yet. An unsigned patti of 1852 states that things worth 5 Varahas should be sent to the Ir the Tasdik patti of 1900, a provi of R 2-4-0 is made on account of the [illegible] to be shown to the Swami for a sum of Rs Ganka Rs, but an expenditure of R 14-8-8 has being incurred till 1923 out of "Appoint" amount and a similar amount has been spent ever years since out of the sum provided for Krishnaraj Mudi.)

3 The next question is whether R 8[illegible] R 14-8-8, the Peshkar acted mala fide or with the malicious intent of insulting the Swa

vide remarks supra

F F. F$_2$

My did not be read the ending of the earlier sentence in the paragraph G. G

4. The Peshkar explains that as the sum of R 14-8-8 was insufficient to purchase the articles required and as money had been sent in the past according to the temple accounts, he sent money in 1920 and that he acted quite bona fide. The Peshkar alleges that in 1919 only money was sent, but the agent of the Mutt, on the other hand, asserts that the specified articles were delivered in 1919 and not money. The Sha amal diary and the cash book show that on 10th July 1919 Peshkar Venkataramania gave Tirumale Venkata Krishniengar and Chennu Tiruvenkatachar R 14-8-8 with instructions to buy a pair of Dhotras at Mysore, as none was procurable at Melkote and to deliver the honours to the Swami. Both of them have signed the entry in the Sha amal diary in token of having received the money while Chennu Tiruvenkatachar alone has signed the corresponding entry in the cash book. Tirumalai Venkatakrishna Iyengar, who is a Vadagalai and a disciple of the Mutt admits the genuineness of his signature in the Sha amal diary. This man went to Mysore to deliver the honours but not Cheppu Tiruvengadachariar who states that he delivered to him not money but a pair of dhotras. Seeing that he was given only money, he got the value of a pair of dhotras only from the Mutt and kept it for himself from others as a gift or otherwise but he does not say that he procured it in any of these means. His contention is that he was given the pair at Melkote but this is positively false for he in the entry bearing his own signature says that he was given only money. It is therefore proved that he was given only money, not dhotras at Melkote and that he did not purchase a pair subsequently. Consequently it follows that he could not have given to the Mutt a pair of dhotras but must have given only money

Reasons not convincing

5. Money was sent not only in 1910 but in 1910 as can be seen from the Vadi sent on 20th July 1910 by the late Vidwan Venkatachar, who was Peshkar of the temple, a document produced by the Agent himself. In this vadi the Peshkar has said that on account of plague at Melkote, no dhotras could be had there, and that he therefore sent Rs. 14-8-8 to the agent in order that he might buy a pair and present it to the Swami. There cannot be any doubt, therefore about money having been remitted in 1910 and there is absolutely nothing to show that the Mutt authorities resented it or wrote to the temple authorities that such a thing should not be repeated in future.

6. In 1920 it was not possible to buy a pair of dhotras for even Rs. 14-8-8, the whole of the sum provided for the Chaturmasya since the matter was superficially [illegible]

I do not think that in [illegible] [illegible] actual malafide or with the intention of insulting the Swami, against whom he bears no personal malice. We have ample material to believe that money had been sent in 1916 and 1919 and he honestly believed that he was simply following precedents in remitting money. The Peshkar cannot be blamed for adopting a procedure which was acquiesced in by the Mutt authorities undoubtedly in 1910 and as I believe in 1919 also.

8. The Peshkar has sent me the original of a vadi dated 4th July 1920 sent by the agent of the Mutt to the Deputy Amildar, Trench Rocks, requesting that R 737-7-4, on account of "Shawl Jodi Maryada" that ought to be shown to the Mutt on the occasion of Krishnaraja Mudi might be paid to Penukonda Seshachar, their agent. The vadi also shows that the Deputy Amildar ordered the Peshkar to pay the amount accordingly. As I received this document only yesterday, i.e., 23rd ~~October~~ Nov 1920, I have had no time to find out what the agent has to say in the matter, the period of one month allowed to me to submit my report expiring to-day, but I have no doubt about the requirements. The de is a possible case but steps to

II. ALANKARA

- Every day a quantity of Alankara veivedra is deliverable to the Mutt. T be delivered to the Swami personally wit music when he is in Chola and at other times to the person appointed by the Mut this behalf. In the latter case, the delivery should be effected generally at Mutt at Tellote, but on special occasions as when the Mutt servants have heavier wo than usual, the Alankara may be delivered the temple premises to the representative the Mutt receiving Alankara Karvade.

What is the meaning of this?

6. The Mutt agent was asked to receive Alankara in the temple as it was rainy and the temple servants did not find it possib to go to the Mutt, but the agent refused to receive it on the ground that it was contra to the Mamool and that he had never received Alankara in the temple. The next morning the Peshkar sent the cold Alankara to the M but the Mutt agent refused to receive it.
Thereupon the Peshkar sold it when it was purchased by one Singasetty for 0-0-6 and this amount is held in deposit by the Peshka

Was he entitled?

Is he entitled to keep it?

The Mutt bitterly complains of these acts and says that they were done with the intention of insulting the Swami.

11. The Peshkar explains that as the article was perishable and as the Mutt authorities would not take it, he sold it in accordance with the procedure prescribed in the Land Revenue Rules and Civil Procedure Code. He quotes some instances of the sale of temple Prasada, but those were cases in which the Prasada had to be distributed among temple servants or Sirkar servants and a sale had to be effected as there were disputes among them. No instance of the sale of Alankara belonging to the Parakala Mutt on any previous occasion has been quoted. On the other hand, the records show that when the Mutt agent left Melkote in 1902 and there was consequently nobody to receive Alankara, it was distributed among the Goshti (i.e. the devotees who had assembled in the temple). On the present occasion too, the Peshkar should have distributed the Alankara among the Goshti and should not have sold it.

12. The Peshkar has tendered his apology for this irregularity and this has been communicated by the Deputy Commissioner to the Agent with an expression of his own regret that such an incident should have happened.

III. SRIMUKHA.

14. The next complaint of the Mutt agent is that in the Srimukha sent to the Swami for the Krishnaraj Mudi, his name was first written as "Krishna Prahmatantra Parakalas which is the name of his predecessor and subsequently the word "Vageesa" the name of the present Swami was written in red ink above the word "Prakasa". The agent argues that as the name has been written thus in more places than one in the same document, it could have been done intentionally to insult the Swami. The Peshkar's explanation is that it was not written or compared by him and that it was sent as usual by Krishna Murti, Prakasa Gumasta. As a matter of fact this document is not in the handwriting of the Peshkar and it does not bear his initials. Such a document sent on a previous occasion has been produced by the agent and that too does not bear the initials of the Peshkar of the day. Gumasta Krishnamurti explains that he took an old draft from the office and copied it, that when it was being compared it was found that the name of the present Swami viz., "Vageesa Prahmatantra Parakalaswami" had not been entered in it and that consequently he made the red ink additions. He has tendered his apology for this unintentional mistake and this has been communicated by the Deputy Commissioner to the Mutt.

D, D2

the incident, however, explains the alteration of the B. Peishkar -

C2

15. But the Mutt agent argues that this is simply an attempt by the Peshkar to transfer his responsibility to a minor official and that even if he did not write or compare the document he should have seen that it was written correctly and that he must be held answerable for the mistake. It is also argued that as Krishna Murti wrote a similar document correctly in 1915, the mistakes in the document of 1920 must have been committed by him at the

had been discontinued and that they therefore refused to do the work of the "Mata Mudra" (i.e., the custodian of it). The Peshkar decided that the Sthalada Mudra and the Mata Mudra should put their own seals and that he could not compel the temple servants to do this work for them. Both these people went away that night without putting their seals, but the Sthala Mudra has been doing it himself subsequently.

E'1 What is his evidence? Why did not he take evidence of this? Why the Court-established practice must have been continued.

E2 1. The Mata Mudra has not been affixing his seal since and it is contended by the Dutt agent that this is an invasion on the Dutt's privileges and a departure from custom and that the representative of the Dutt has been to the temple for a long time after which cannot be expected to touch cloth stitched by a non-Brahmin who does not observe "Madi".

E E1 2. There is a dispute as to whether Khadri Sheshachar, Mata Mudra Purushottam was a temple servant or a Dutt servant. The Peshkar contends that he is a temple servant as he is getting R. 7/- per annum from the temple funds as pay for his office of "Mata Mudra", while the agent urges that he is a Dutt servant since under the servant the puja appurtenances such as ... It is immaterial for the present purpose to decide whether he is a temple servant or a Dutt servant. If he is a temple servant, he has no authority over other temple servants and I cannot compel [illegible] Whether the owner of the Peshkar, the Mata Mudra [illegible] to put the seal for him. Since he receives R. 7/- per annum he ought to do his duty. If on

H1 Why raise all these irrelevant questions - [illegible]

If on the other hand he is a Mutt servant, he cannot command a temple servant to put the seal. No outsider whosoever he may be can be permitted to place himself in a position of authority over temple servants. In either of these contingencies, the representative of the Mutt cannot get the work done by temple servants.

21. Further the direction in the Sunnad dated 30-8-1830 relied upon by the Mutt, regarding this question is as follows:-

"All the work connected with the putting of the seal should be got done through the person appointed in this behalf by the Swami". An extract from the Sunnad is quoted in the Karrir.

22. According to the Sunnad it is the duty of the person representing the Mutt to see that everything connected with the sealing, but if he does not do it himself, he must get it done through some other employed by him for the purpose. There is nothing in the Sunnad warranting the contention that the Mutt representative can compel a temple servant to do the sealing for him.

V. AGRAHARYAM.

The last contention of the Mutt agent that on 1-8-1930 the Peshkar appropriated to himself without authority the agraharyam due to the Mutt and that he has thereby insulted the Swami.

The agent employed by the Mutt to receive Agra Thirtha at the Melkote temple is is one Tirumale Sreenivasachar, but he was absent on the date in question. One Lakshmi Narasimhachar appeared as the representative and claimed the honours.

15. According to the agent, he was asked by the temple authorities to bring a vadi from the local representative of the Mutt that he went for the purpose and that before he could return, the Peshkar had appropriated to himself the honours due to the Mutt.

16. The Peshkar states that as no action could be taken upon the verbal representation of Lakshmi Narasimhachar that he had been authorized to receive Agra Marvade for the day he was asked to bring a vadi in proof of his representative capacity and that though he went at about 9 O'clock, he did not return till 11 A.M. and that as a large number of devotees were waiting for Theertha and as this could not be distributed till the Agra Maryade was shown, he, with a view to avoid inconvenience to the Goshti. received the Para and the betel leaves and areca nuts due to the Mutt as he was informed that under similar circumstances his predecessors had accepted the Marvade due to the Mutt.

17. Prima facie it was wrong on the part of the Peshkar to have received some of the honours due to the Mutt without any authority from the Swami. He was perfectly justified in asking Lakshmi Narasimhachar to produce written authority in support of his claim as otherwise it would be oper to the Mutt to contend that the honours were shown to an unauthorized person and that the Mutt was thereby was disgraced, but the written authority came and Lakshminarasimhachar appeared only after the Goshti had waited a long time. The agent argues that it was always usual to wait till the Mutt representative came and that the agent should have waited till Lakshminarasimhachar, whom he had himself sent from the temple to bring a written authority, came back, and that ~~he should~~ even if it was necessary to deliver immediately the Agra honours to facilitate business in the temple, he should have kept the garland and betel leves and areca nuts on a plate and treated those honours as having been delivered to the Mutt, instead of receiving them himself. In the absence of higher Government servants, the Peshkar receives the Raja Marvade, but the Agra honours due to the Mutt stand on quite a different footing and the Peshkar would have acted discreetly if he had placed the garland etc., on a plate, which is the procedure adopted in the Ranganathaswami temple at Seringapatam. But he was informed by the Goshti which included some well known persons such as Alwar Tiru Ala Iyengar, Acharyapurusha Tirumalachar, Pargadham Singlachar and others that he might receive the garland and betel leaves and areca nuts as had been done by some of his non-Vaishnava predecessors such as Murti Rao, Venkata Rangia and Seringa (vide Mahazars signed by several residents of Melkote in which it is said that on occasions on which the Mutt agent was absen Sree Vaishnava Peshkars had received all the Agra honours, while non-Sree Vaishnava Peshk had accepted only the garland and betel leaves or areca nuts). The Mutt agent states that that no Peshkar had ever done so and that the Mutt had received no report of any Peshkar appropriating its honours, but this is not surprising for such events took place only when the Mutt representative was absent and it was not to the latter's interest to report his own absence and the consequent appropriation of the Mutt's honours by others. At the same time it must be observed that no extract from temple records has been produced to show that such things have taken place in the past 25. On the whole, I am of opinion that the Peshkar was ill-advised in accepting the garland and the betel leaves and areca nuts, but he did so merely to avoid inconvenience to the public.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.107 Muz.1-20-6 dated 13th July 1920 re presentation of honors to the Sri Parakalaswamigalu from the Melkote temple during his Chaturmasya Sankalpa, I have the honor to forward in original the report of the Sub Division Officer and the record of enquiry held by him regarding the alleged insult to the Sri Sri Parakalsami on the occasion of the 'Chatur Masya'. It is seen from the record that a sum of Rs. 14-8-0 has been set apart for the performance of honors on the above occasion. The practice seems to have been that the above amount was drawn and paid to one of the servents of the temple with instructions to buy the necessary articles out of the amount and present the honors.

2. This year as usual the Peshkar asked the man who went last year to take the amount for doing the honors after purchasing the articles out of the allotted amount. The man refused to go on the plea that he could not buy the neces ary articles out of the allotted amount. In consequence the Peshkar had to send the amount through two other persons. The Peiskar sent the amount direct to the Agent of the Mutt requesting him to arrange to buy the necessary articles out of the amount. He would have have, no doubt, done well to instruct the persons with whom he sent the money to buy the articles and present the honours. But he found it difficult to buy the 'Dhotra' cloth of 24 cubits and other articles out of the amount and hence had to adopt this course. There does not seem to have been any intention on the part of the Peshkar to insult the Sri Parakalaswamy Mutt.

3. The persons who took the amount reached the Mutt the previous day, and the Agent could have given the necessary direction to the persons as to the purchase of the articles and thus could have prevented all trouble.

4. If anything could be said against the action of the Peshkar it is probably that he was wanting in tact.

5. The Sub Division Officer was here yesterday in connection with the Basava Subjects Meeting and I wanted to consult him in person as regards the complaint and send you the report Hence the delay which I regret much.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

My Dear Sir,

The Swamigalu of the Sri Parakala swamy Matt has ~~complained~~ represented through his Agent that considerable annoyance as well as inconvenience is being caused owing to the non-observance of certain approved mamuls at Melkote and ~~he~~ requested that immediate steps may be taken to set matters right. It has also been brought to notice that the Peshkar did not appear to be much to blame in the matter and that some subordinate of his - a parpathegar - named Kalamegam Alasingrachar was the source of all the recent trouble.

I am, therefore, desired to request you to instruct the Sub-Division Officer, French Rocks, to proceed to Melkote at once, make detailed enquiries, do what is urgently needed and to report the action taken. Before going to Melkote, the Sub-Division Officer may meet the Agent of the Matt, ascertain from him all that he has to say and also obtain from him a memo of what is wanted. I am to request that a report of the action taken by the Sub-Division Officer may be submitted to Government within a fortnight.

No. 24 Immediate

Dear Sir,

With reference to the correspondence ending with your D.O.No.729 dated 24th August 1920, regarding the presentation of the customary honors to the Sri Parakalaswami from the Melkote Temple on the first day of Chaturmasya Sankalpa, I am desired to request that arrangements may be made for paying him before the close of Chaturmasya Sankalpa on the next Full Moon day (i.e., 27th instant), the honors that should have been shown to him on the opening day. The Peshkar of the Temple may immediately be instructed to send him in due form the customary honors due from the temple on some date on or before, the 27th which may be fixed in consultation with the Mutt authorities.

I am further to request that the Deputy Amildar of French Rocks may also be specially instructed to see that no room is given for complaints again in this respect.

Dated, Mysore 11th September 1920

From

Deputy Commissioner,

To

Secretary to the Government of

His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,

Revenue Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

from 1st August 1920 the honors due daily to the matt from the temple, I have the honor to state that I also received a similar complaint on 2nd August 1920 from the Agent of the matt and I ordered an early enquiry.

2 The Sub Division Officer has enquired into the matter and submitted a report.

3. From the records of enquiry it is seen that one Srinivasa Iyengar the appointed gumasta of the Matt who was receiving the honors till 1st August 1920 absented himself on the day in question (ie. on 1.8.20) and one Lakshmi Narsimha Char appeared before the temple on that day saying that he had been appointed in place of Srinivas Iyengar and claimed the honour due to the post.

4. On being asked by the Pleaders to produce a written authority from of the local post at Mudhole, Narahari Narasinha Case would simply say that the world knew it, but did not know upon what he lay claim and many witnesses had consequently to visit the [illegible] to depose that he had been [illegible] by the simple designation but had no [illegible] to show that [illegible]
[illegible]
[illegible] previously [illegible] Mudhole [illegible] Narahari [illegible]
the [illegible] [illegible]
[illegible]

Venkata Char and Ranganga had received the honors due to the Matt on previous instances, he also received the honors formally on behalf of the Matt as was done by previous Peishkars and deposited the same in the Samidhi in view of conducting further services in the temple as many devotees were waiting for sevas.

5 There are no records forthcoming to show what was done on similar occasions by the previous Peishkars in instances of the kind. The reason why no objection was taken by the Matt when this occurred previously is probably due to the fact that the said Peshkars were the desciples of the Matt. The present Peshkar having no time to consider the subject

at the moment quietly followed the procedure adopted in similar and received the honors with due res pects to the Matt. There does not ap to have been any motive for the Matt under the circumstances.

6 He acted in good faith as he not then sufficient time to consult better authorities in the matter.

7 It is stated that after this, the newly appointed Matt Gumasta appea again before the Peshkar and said the order of his appointment had sent separately by the Matt with a peon. Thereon the Peshkar asked him to receive the honors in future. This the Matt Gumasta refused to do qua tioning the Peshkar the authority whereas which he received the honors due to the matt in the first instance and he did not afterwards put in appearance. Since then the Manyades due to the matt are being as reported deposited in a plate.

8. All this trouble is due to the delay by the matt authorities in not making proper immediate arrangements in appointing duly authorized substitutes in the absence of the recognized agent.

9. To avoid any further troubles of the kind it is proposed that

(a) The matt may be required to issue timely intimation to the temple in cases of any change of the representative of the matt.

(b) During the absence of the representative representative of the matt at the to receive honors, the same may be deposited in a plate as is being in the temple at Seringapatam -

It is difficult to suggest any other if the convenience of the public and smooth working of the temple services are to be considered - The Public be made to wait indefinitely in the temple, simply because a servant of the matt chooses to be as as he pleases - and

(C) In the event of any difference opinion in matters of the kind and the absence of any explicit written au thorities as to such matters, the of the majority of the Dharmadarsis be obtained and acted upon acc

18·10·20

Sir,

With reference to your order No.A dated 25th August 1920 forwarding a confidential D.O. received from the --- Muzrai Superintendent in Mysore regarding the annoyance and inconvenience caused by the non-observance of certain approved mamools due to Sri Parakala Swamy at Melkote, for enquiry, I have the honor to state that in persuance of the instructions contained in the said D.O. I met the Agent of Sri Parakalaswami Mutt the very next day and told him that I was prepared to go to Melkote the next day and start the enquiry and that he might give me "a memo of what is wanted. The Agent of the Mutt requested me to hold the enquiry at my Head Quarters as he was sending a lawer to represent the Mutt's case and that it would be inconvenient for the lawyer to go to Melkote, to all which I agreed. But when I went to Mysore to see the Deputy Commissioner on the 3rd Septr. 1920, Mr. Krishna Doss, Advocate, representing himself on behalf of the Mutt "filed an application and five statements" and requested me "to get the opposite party served with the 5 copies of statements" and ask "them to file -- replies to the same by Saturday week 11th September 1920"

When

When I asked the lawyer what he meant by the opposite party he said that he meant the Peishcar of the Temple and any other persons in Melkote who challenged the rights and the privileges of the Mutt. So it devolved upon me the duty of finding an opposite party and I got the matter published as widely as possible in Melkote inviting an opposite party, and a day was fixed for hearing or receiving their statements as desired by the Mutt. On the 4th October 1920 the opposite party did not turn up, but one Tirumalachar saw me some days previously and said that he was prepared to file certain statements and asked for some time. On the 15th October the Peishkar filed his statement and Tirumalachar also filed one. If the lawyer had been present in Court, he might have examined them if he liked, then and there, but on the other hand he wrote a letter requesting me "to kindly hand over copies of statements filed by the opposite party" and added that according "to the instructions replies seem to be absolutely necessary," and that I may "fix a day convenient to the court for receiving our replies".

It will be seen from the above that the Mutt instead of themselves placing a memo of "what is wanted" directly before me at Melkote and facilitating prompt enquiry chose to engage a lawyer who, in his turn, adopted the round about and altogether unnecessary methods of a Civil Court.

So early as last month, when the Agent told me that he had engaged a lawyer to argue before me the Mutt's Case, I foresaw that the enquiry was bound to be prolonged, if conducted on the lines suggested by the Mutt, and I immediately wrote to the Deputy Commissioner saying that the enquiry under those conditions could not be completed within a fortnight as directed in the Muzrai Secretary's D.O. of of 24th August 1920 and that more time was wanted. Even at this late hour I do not know what the further move of the lawyer would be after receiving copies of the statements of the opposite party.

In these circumstances I seek instructions as to - whether I should continue the enquiry on the lines of the lawyer or send in my report immediately on the materials before me. There is ample justification for adopting the latter course since all the points have been enquired into elaborately and papers have been submitted to you for orders and since no person, either the Temple authorities or the general public have disputed the rights and privileges of the Mutt.

For the sake of convenience I give below the gist of the result of enquiry already made on the several points:-

I. CHATHURMASYA MARIYADAM:-

It is admitted that the Sri Parakalaswamy is entitled to the several mariyadas showed on the occasion at an estimated cost of Rs.14- 6- 8. The Mutt claims that the several items of the mariyadas should be rendered unto them in kind, whatever may be the cost, and say that it was done so - in previous years.

The expenditure involved in doing these mariyadas last month under the Special Orders of the Deputy Commissioner came to Rs.34/- against a budgetted allotment of -- Rs.14-6-8. The extra cost was absolutely necessary in ~~kind~~ view of the high prices ruling this year. The prices of last year and the 4 years previous were certainly higher than that of this year, as must be within the knowledge of everybody.

It seems therefore inconceivable how all the mariyadas including a silk bordered cloth, 24 cubits long, were presented to the Mutt last year within the sum of Rs.14-8-0.

II. The delivery of the Alankara to the Mutt's representative at Melkote with due ceremony:-

While this is invariably being sent from the Temple with all formality, provision is made for the same being delivered to the Mutt's representative present in the Temple, if owing to inclement weather or lateness of the hour or other inconvenience, the Alankaras cannot be sent to the Mutt at Melkote with all formality. (Vide Government Order of 1896). The Mutt object to this arrangement; but until Government modify or cancel their order, the Peishcar would be perfectly justified in carrying out the same.

III. The Theertha and Mariyada to be given to the Agent of the Mutt as soon as the Temple service is over:-

This is being regularly done but on one occasion, the representative of the Mutt was absent and the Theertha was put in a plate and further service was carried on in the temple. The Mutt object to this practice although this has been in vogue in Seringapatam and other temples. The Mutt want the further temple services should be stopped till their representative is found, and thirta given to him. Whether this could be done without creating a dead lock and causing inconvenience to the general public is a matter for the consideration and orders of Government.

IV. MATTADA MUDRE:-

The Mutt have the privilege of affixing its seal on the locks of temple chambers. A special pay is provided from the temple funds for a representative from the Mutt doing the work of affixing ~~of~~ the seal.

The Mutt representative told off for that duty has now declined to affix the seal on the ground that it is ~~-le~~ the the duty of the temple gollar to affix the seal while his duty is to only keep it. The Gollars refuse to do ~~eff~~ it unless they are given cakes and rice as before. It hardly seems reasonable that when a person is in receipt of a special pay for doing a work he should refuse to do it and want some one else to do it.

V. On one occasion the temple clerk wrongly addressed the Sri Parakalaswamy Mutt:- He has apologised for the mistake. If necessary he may be fined and warned.

I have the honor tobe,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Sub Division Officer,

French Rocks.

Correspondence ending with letter No. C. 120-21, dated 4th November 1920, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, submitting a report on the several complaints of the Sri Parakala Matt against the Peshkar of the Sri Narayanaswami temple at Melkote in the matter of certain Mariyades due to the Matt from the temple.

(2) Note dated 24th November 1920, by the Muzrai Superintendent, submitting a report on the enquiry personally held by him into the several complaints against the Peshkar.

Order No. 3431-40—Muz. 1-20-28, dated 2nd April 1921.

The several complaints against the Peshkar are :—

I. That the Peshkar, Mr. C. Raghavendra Rao, has failed to observe the long standing mamool of sending certain honors from the temple to the Sri Parakalaswami on the commencement of the Chaturmasya Sankalpa on the 1st July 1920.

II. That on the night of 1st July 1920, the Peshkar failed to send the Alankara Mariyade due to the local Agent of the Matt and that on the Matt Agent refusing to receive the cold Alankara sent to him on the following morning, the Peshkar disposed of it by sale for 6 pies and held the amount in deposit.

III. That in the Srimukha sent to the Sri Parakalaswami from the temple, the name of the Swami was first written as "Krishna Brahmathantra Parakalaswami" which is the name of his predecessor and that subsequently the word "Vageesa" the name of the present Swami was written in red ink, above the word "Krishna" and that the name has been written thus in the document in more places than one as an insult to the Swami.

IV. That on 30th July 1920, the Peshkar failed to have the seal of the Matt affixed by the temple servants on the temple locks, holding that it should be put by the local Matha Mudre.

V. That on 1st August 1920, the Peshkar appropriated to himself, without authority the Agramaryade due to the Matt.

2. The Government have perused the reports submitted by the Deputy Commissioner and the Muzrai Superintendent, who was instructed to hold a personal enquiry into the matter, and they now proceed to pass orders on the several points of complaint:—

I. Maryade on account of Chaturmasya Sankalpa.

3. Under a Sannad dated 20th August 1830, granted by His Late Highness Krishnaraja Wodayar Bahadur III, Sri Parakalaswami is entitled to the following honours from the Sri Narayanaswami temple at Melkote on the occasion of his performing the Chaturmasya Sankalpa :—

A pair of Dhotras.	Cocoanuts.
Namada Undays.	Arecanut and betel leaves.
A Pariyatta.	Kavi stones.
Plantain fruits.

4. These honors have been sent to the Swami since at least 1852, so far as the records show. On the present occasion, however, the Peshkar instead of sending the articles constituting the Mariyade as above, sent a sum of Rs. 14-8-8 in cash asking the Matt Agent to buy the articles and present them to the Swami on the occasion of the Chaturmasya Sankalpa.

5. The explanation of the Peshkar is that as the sum of Rs. 14-8-8, was insufficient to purchase all the articles required, he sent the money on the precedents of such cash payments in the years 1910 and 1919 and that in so doing he acted quite bona fide.

6. According to the Sannad, however, the honor in question should be shown by sending the articles specified and there is nothing in the Sannad authorising the transmission of the value of the articles in cash.

7. The proofs offered of cash payments on two occasions in the past are not quite convincing.

8. In the circumstances of the present case, the Government are constrained to observe that the Peshkar committed a very grave mistake in sending cash and that the bona fides of his action are open to doubt. If the Peshkar had any doubt in the matter it was his duty to have sought the orders of the higher authorities.

9. It is, however, a matter for satisfaction that this mistake has since been rectified by the honors being sent to the Swami under the orders of Government, towards the close of the Chaturmasya Sankalpa on 27th September 1920, and by his acceptance of the same.

II. Alankara.

10. Every day, a quantity of Alankara Nevedya is deliverable to the Matt. When the Sri Swami himself is not personally present at Melkote, this Alankara is to be delivered to the Matt's nominee in this behalf, generally at the Matt itself ; but whenever circumstances render it very inconvenient to take the Alankara to the Matt premises, it is permissible to deliver it to the Matt's nominee at the temple, if the latter should happen to be present there at the time.

11. On the day in question, the Peshkar asked the Matt Agent present at the temple to receive the Alankara, as it was rainy and the temple servants did not find it possible to go to the Matt ; but the Agent refused to receive it stating that it was contrary to mamool and that he had never received Alankara in the temple. The Peshkar then sent the Alankara to the Matt on the following morning by which time it had become cold. The Agent refused to receive it. Thereupon the Peshkar sold it for 6 pies and held the amount in deposit.

12. The explanation of the Peshkar is that as the article was perishable and the Matt authorities would not take it, he sold it in accordance with the procedure prescribed in the Land Revenue Rules and Civil Procedure Code.

13. This explanation is not worth anything. Government cannot but look upon the action of the Peshkar in having sold the Alankara for a paltry sum of six pies as highly reprehensible. It is reported that the Peshkar has tendered his apology for his irregular act and that the Deputy Commissioner has communicated the same to the Agent of the Matt with an expression of his own regret that such an incident should have happened. But an apology will not go far to mitigate the culpability of the initial action.

III. Srimukha.

14. This document is admittedly worded most irregularly. The explanation of the Peshkar is that the Srimukha was not written or compared by him and that it was sent as usual by the Bokkasa Gumasta Krishnamurti. The gumasta explains that he took an old draft in the office and copied it, that when it was being compared it was found that the name of the present Swami, viz., " Vageesa Brahmathantra Parakalaswami " had not been entered in it and that consequently he made the red ink additions. It is reported that the gumasta has tendered his apology for this unintentional mistake and that this has been communicated by the Deputy Commissioner to the Matt.

15. The explanations are, however, far from satisfactory. The Peshkar who is in charge of the temple affairs cannot be allowed to transfer his responsibility to a minor official ; even if he did not write or compare the document, it was his duty to have seen that the document was correctly and properly written before he allowed it to issue from the temple. The incident, though small, yet explains the attitude of this official.

IV. Seal.

16. Every night three different seals are affixed to the locks on the doors of the temple and they are .—

(1) Sirkar Mudre,
(2) Matt Mudre, and
(3) Sthala Mudre.

The first is with the Peshkar, the second is with a person on behalf of the Matt and the third with a local resident. Every night after the worship is over, the doors are locked, a temple servant stitches a cloth over the locks and the three seals referred to above are pressed against the wax on each of the locks.

17. On 30th July 1920, the usual stitching was done and molten wax was also put on the locks. Tirumalai Srinivasa Iyengar who had the Matt Mudre, was asked to affix his seal but he said it had always been done by the servants of the temple and that the same practice should be continued ; but the temple servants said that the persons who were the custodians of the seals were affixing them formerly, that the Matt Mudre was giving some prasadam to the masalchi or some temple servant for putting the seal on, tha this had been discontinued and that they therefore refused to do the work of the " Matt Mudre " (i. e., the custodian of it). The Peshkar decided that the Sthala Mudre and the Matt Mudre should put their own seals and that he could not compel the temple servants to do this work for them. Both these people went away that night without putting their seals. The Sthala Mudre has been doing it himself subsequently; but since this incident the Matt Mudre has not been affixing his seal. It is contended by the Matt Agent that this is an invasion on the Matt's privileges and a departure from mamool and that the representative of the Matt who goes to the temple in a pure state after a bath cannot be expected to touch cloth stitched by a non-brahmin who does not observe " Madi."

18. The Government observe that thi is a matter in which the Peshkar should have taken the orders of his superiors; and pending such orders, the old practice which obtained until the Peshkar raised the question should have been continued. After all, the duty of pressing the Matt seal by the Matt servant is not so onerous as to require a serious discussion.

V. Agra Maryade.

19. On the day in question, one Tirumale Srinivasachar, the Agent employed by the Matt to receive Agra Tirtha at the Melkote temple was absent and in his stead one Lakshmi Narasimhachar appeared as the representative and claimed the honours. The Peshkar says that he asked the latter to bring a Yadi from the local representative of the Matt ; that Lakshmi Narasimhachar went away and did not return for a long time, that a large number of devotees were waiting for Tirtha and that as this could not be distributed till the Agra Maryade had been delivered, he (the Peshkar) himself received the Hara and the betel leaves and arecanuts due to the Matt, with a view to avoid inconvenience to the Ghoshti who were long waiting for the Tirtha ; and that further he was also told that under similar circumstances his predecessors in office had accepted the Mariyade due to the Matt.

20. Prima Facie.—It was very wrong on the part of the Peshkar to have appropriated to himself the honours due to the Matt. No records have been produced to prove the precedents urged by the Peshkar. If the Matt representative did not return in time, the proper course was to have kept by the garland and betel leaves and the arecanut on a plate and treated these honors as having been delivered to the Matt—a recognized practice obtaining in institutions elsewhere. Instead of doing so, the Peshkar appropriated to himself the honors due to the Matt ; his act in this respect is highly reprehensible and cannot in any way be justified.

21. Reviewing the above incidents as a whole, it is clear, that a petty official like the Peshkar of this temple has arrogated to himself a great many powers and responsibilities which, one in his position is not expected even to assume. This must be put a stop to at once ; it is particularly dangerous in a place like Melkote where there are two strong opposing factions. The Government take this opportunity to clearly lay down that in all cases of doubt or difficulty, the Peshhar should invariably refer the points at issue to the higher officers and obtain orders and that he must have no discretion whatever given to him, as that will be only placing a dangerous weapon in his hands as the present enquiry shows. The Government feel constrained to remark again that the local officers have signally failed to realise their responsibility, and have allowed it to be unauthorisedly assumed by a petty official, the Peshkar, uncontrolled by his superior officers.

22. Government also wish to impress upon all their officers, that long established mamool based on Sannads granted by His Highness the late Maharaja Krishnaraja Wodayar, insignificant though it may appear to be at the present time, should yet on no account be departed from by any officer of Government. It is His Highness' Government, who should be appealed to whenever the local authorities feel a doubt or delicacy in giving effect to the terms of the Sannads. This should be clearly understood by all the Deputy Commissioners so that such troubles may not arise as frequently as they have done of late, particularly in the management of the affairs of this temple.

23. The Peshkar deserves exemplary punishment; but as he has since retired from service, Government do not wish to pursue the matter further.

T. E. JEYARAMA IYER,

Secy., to Govt., Muzrai Dept.

To—The Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, returning Vernacular records.
The Deputy Commissioners of other Districts.
The Muzrai Superintendent in Mysore.
The Agent of the Sri Parakalaswami Matt, Mysore.

Office of the Deputy Commissioner,
Mysore District.
Dated, Mysore, 4th April 1921.

From

F.F. Bowring, Esquire,
Deputy Commissioner,
Mysore District.

To

T.E. Jayarama Iyer, Esq., B.A.,B.L., Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore,
Muzrai Department. BANGALORE.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of Government Proceedings No.3431-40/Muz.1-20-28 dated the 2nd instant passing orders on the complaints of the Sri Parakala Matt against the Peshkar of the Sri Narayanaswami Temple at Melkote. In the last sentence of para 21 of the Proceedings, it is observed by Government that "the local officers have signally failed to realise their responsibility". With reference to this remark, I beg to point out that the Peishkar is the only responsible official present and in matters of the kind referred to in the Government Order he has to decide what has to be done on the spur of the moment without obtaining orders from his superior officers. While so, the local officers - the Amildar, the Sub Division Officer, or the Deputy Commissioner, who do not live at Melkote, cannot control his actions.

2. Moreover, when the question of appointing a suitable man for the Peshkar's place came up for consideration some time ago, I suggested to the Secretary to Government, Muzrai Department, that a competent person might be selected by him and sent to Melkote, who could satisfactorily discharge the duties required of him. I was, however, asked to appoint a man myself on my own responsibility from the District, and with the best of intentions, I made the selection and sent Raghavendra Rao there.

3. In these circumstances, I submit that the remarks contained in the last sentence of para 21 referred to above are hardly fair to my Officers and myself, and I therefore respectfully request that they may be modified.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,

Mysore District.
